

Elder Abuse Prevention Association

Protecting Our Vulnerable Older Persons..

The Elder Abuse Prevention Association is pleased to announce the hosting of the 4th Annual National Conference on Elder Abuse to be held on 1-3 October, 2008 at Kimberley Gardens Function Centre at the Quest East St.Kilda in Melbourne. This three day event, entitled Giving A Voice To Those Who Are Silenced commences with a half-day workshop and should attract aged care, medical, legal, research, law enforcement, disabilities, academic, political, advocacy, multi-cultural, human rights, and private industry professionals from throughout Australia and beyond. Exhibitors from the aged care industry and related concerns will be on hand each day.

Don't miss this "one of a kind" national conference featuring some of the most talented professionals from around Australia speaking on elder abuse issues. Giving A Voice To Those Who Are Silenced will highlight top initiatives and programs as well as "cutting edge" strategies in combating elder abuse in all settings.

KEYNOTE SPEAKERS

PETER WHITEHEAD - DAY 2

Peter Whitehead is the NSW Public Trustee and is a lawyer. As CEO of a self-funding government business his key focus is on good customer service and business growth while still providing service to all members of the community.

He has worked for Public Trustee NSW since 1976 in the areas of Probate, Equity, Real Property, Taxation and Powers of Attorney, corporate and trustee compliance and risk management and has been a part of senior management since 1991.

Peter has been the National President of the Trustee Corporations of Australia, and is a member of many professional committees.

RAY LEWIS - DAY 3

Ray Lewis is the founder of Greypath. He is an ex RAAF navigator, high tech entrepreneur and public company chairman. Ray is also a 2007 Victorian Senior Achiever award winner in recognition of his dedication to the welfare of the senior community.

A passionate advocate for protecting the rights of seniors, the 72-year-old is the inaugural president of the Elder Abuse Prevention Association of Australia.

Empowerment is at the core of the GreyPath site, providing members with the tools to learn, be informed, share ideas, have a voice and support others in the online community.
